ON THE LAKE MAGGIORE EXPRESS

Lakes, islands, mountains and picturesque towns, natural and man-made masterpieces await you, enveloped in the flavours and fragrances of this little-explored land. Lake Maggiore, Lake Orta, Lake Mergozzo, and the Ossola mountains and valleys form the Lakes District, featuring some of the greatest natural wonders of Piedmont and Italy. Surrounded by a crown of breath-taking peaks and studded with the jewels of eleven magical islands, Lake Maggiore is for many the most beautiful in all of Italy.

From the crystal blue waters to the thick green mantle of the Vigizzo Valley, ferries and trains take visitors on a journey of discovery across the lake and through its surrounds. From the picturesque Stresa, with its stylish art nouveau hotels and villas, follow the spectacular shores of the lake to Locarno, admiring the lush green Borromee islands along the way. Once in Locarno, home to the international film festival, stop to admire the historic town centre before taking the scenic Centovalle train through the Swiss mountains, returning to Piedmont via the Vigizzo Valley, where the rich Lepontine Alps still preserve their natural uncontaminated beauty. In the picturesque town of Re, visit the majestic seventeenth century sanctuary built in memory of the miracle of the Bleeding Madonna. From Domodossola train station, take the Lago Maggiore Express to contemplate the beauty of the lake from a different vantage point, on your way back to Stresa, or alternatively, take the same road by car.
