THE SOUNDS OF HISTORY

Wonder and excitement abound in the Marquisate of Saluzzo. Starting with the Abbey of Staffarda with its mighty walls, which lead you into the protected tranquillity of an open and easily accessible cloister. A haven suspended in the past, where the echoes of silence can still be heard to this day.

In these foothills to the Alps, two towns will win your hearts: Savigliano, with its evocative streets and medieval and Renaissance architecture - do not miss the Civic Museum with its famous Calandra collection of plaster casts, and the Railway Museum; and Saluzzo, the capital of the marquisate, a treasure trove of art and architecture, featuring spectacular views over the plains and mountains. Feast away at lunch and dinner on traditional mountain cuisine, featuring game meats, a wide variety of cheese, and the special "ravioles" typical of the Varaita Valley.

The gentle, delicate sounds of arpeggio give a magical touch to the Victor Salvi di Piasco Museum, the world's only museum dedicated to harps, housing a collection of over 80 harps from the last three centuries. An experience that will remain forever with you is a visit to the Fabbrica dei Suoni in Venasca, a musical theme park dedicated to sound. Starting from Dronero take a journey into the valleys and back in time, to discover an ancient culture still alive today, sandwiched between the Alps and the sea - visit the Son de Lenga Museum to get a closer look at the Occitanian world.

The sound of soft rustling evokes the caress of fine silk at the spinners of Caraglio, housing an organzine museum, and also worth visiting for its architectural peculiarity.
