UNDERGROUND CATHEDRALS

A panoramic trip through the vineyards of the Upper Monferrato district will take you to Canelli, the home of the world-renowned Asti Spumante. Here you can also visit some of the historic wine cellars known as the Underground Cathedrals. Nominated for UNESCO world heritage listing, these spectacular tunnels, constructed in brick or dug directly into the tuff, house prestigious bottles of wine and offer the opportunity to taste Barbera, Asti and Moscato wines – the true excellence of the area. The historical rendition of the Siege of Canelli, held annually on the third weekend of June, is more than just a simple mise-en-scène, attracting spectators from far and wide.

After lunch in one of the many restaurants or farmhouses, head straight for one of the most evocative and uncontaminated spots in the entire province – the Langa Astigiana district. Here the hills soar up as high as 800m in Roccaverano, the town which lends its name to Italy's only DOP goat's-milk robiola cheese. Between the sweeping pastures and hazelnut orchards stand medieval watchtowers and villages built in stone, such as Mombaldone, considered one of the most beautiful in Italy.

The spa resort of Agliano is the perfect place to unwind and regenerate the senses, thanks to the warm hospitality of the resort, the healing, restorative powers of sulphur springs, and the fully accessible facilities provided.
